The many faces of Ruby Rose

...AND THE BEAUTY SECRETS SHE SWEARS BY

The Australian star of Orange Is the New Black has already lived a thousand lives: MTV VJ, model, DJ, presenter and actress (she has three films coming out next year). Now she's indulging her love of make-up, in her latest role as the face of Urban Decay's Vice Lipstick collection of 100 new lip colours. "I'd like my life to be 50% feeling beautiful and wearing amazing outfits on the red carpet; 50% being active in crazy films, or surfing and skateboarding, so I just get up and go," she says. "I love that every day is different."

THE SPORTS FAN

"I drink a lot of water and I don't drink or smoke, to keep my wellbeing at optimum. I do my own stunts, I skateboard, BMX, surf... so I have a massage every two weeks. I also wear SPF every day - it's the only safe way to do all that stuff outdoors."

"My tattoos definitely look better when I moisturise: it really makes them pop. Luse The Renewal Oil [£160 Crème de la Mer (4)] to hydrate my entire body."

THE DJ

"I'll take a lipstick, mascara, and powder because I get sweaty. I always top up my mascara before I go on stage. I like a gold smoky eye for gigs, because of the way the lights hit it. It's a way to show people, hey, we're all out on a glamorous night out together!"

THE LIPSTICK MAVEN

"I used to have ten lipsticks: one for a sporty day, one for lunch with girlfriends, one for DJing... I wasn't thinking outside the box. Now I have 100! It's like the Hunger Games inside that box - all fighting to be my colour for the day. I love Trick (2) and Pandemonium (3) [both £15 Urban Decay]."

THE ANDROGYNOUS ARCH

"I like a strong brow - I use Brow Beater [£15 Urban Decay (1)]. When I was growing up, I'd buy British magazines, and when I moved on from a Billie Piper obsession to East 17. I shaved slits in my brows. Thankfully, some eyebrow God gave me my brows back."
